

Since 1980, Rimini Meeting has attracted an average attendance of 700.000 people. Lasting an entire week in August, it is the biggest summer event of encounters, exhibitions, music and live performances in the world. For 30 years this Foundation has created a meeting place for encounters between different beliefs and cultures in the certainty that places of friendship between people can be the beginning of the construction of peace, harmonious coexistence and the common good.
