

Dialogue with

Fr. Julián Carrón

Communion and Liberation

Archbishop Christophe Pierre

Apostolic Nuncio to the United States

John Carr

Initiative on Catholic Social Thought and Public Life at Georgetown University

SUNDAY • OCTOBER 15, 2017 • 4PM

Fr. Julián Carrón's DISARMING BEAUTY, published by University of Notre Dame Press, offers a broad diagnosis of the major challenges of our time with implications for education, politics, freedom, the economy, and extremism. The book presents a unique and provoking hypothesis for facing these challenges.

Archbishop Christophe Pierre, Apostolic Nuncio to the United States, will join Fr. Julián Carrón for an in-depth discussion moderated by John Carr, Director of Georgetown University's Initiative on Catholic Social Thought and Public Life. Fr. Carrón is the leader of Communion and Liberation, a movement in the Catholic Church founded by Msgr. Luigi Giussani in 1954.

ICC AUDITORIUM
37TH AND O ST, N.W.
WASHINGTON, DC

BOOKS AVAILABLE FOR PURCHASE

RECEPTION FOLLOWS

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY

CROSSROADS
CULTURAL CENTER

CLUS
CATHOLIC LEADERSHIP UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

for more info:

dc@crossroadsculturalcenter.org

disarmingbeautythebook.com

english.clonline.org

crossroadsculturalcenter.org

catholicsocialthought.georgetown.edu